Wedding Receptions at Yester Grange..... Exclusive, amazing and completely unforgettable

Thank you for your enquiry regarding the Yester Grange Estate - The Blue Mountains premier venue for couples seeking a truly unique wedding reception.

The Location

Nestled in 10 acres of totally private parkland and garden at the top of Wentworth Falls waterfall, the rolling expanse of green lawn reaches from the magnificent Victorian mansion, to touch the thousands of hectares of World Heritage listed Blue Mountains wilderness that lies beyond. The views are breathtaking and the atmosphere will leave your guests spellbound.

The House

Yester Grange is listed by both National Trust and the Heritage Council. It has long history as a popular haunt of the rich and famous. The beautiful Kauri timber lined ballroom - was added in the late 1800's by Sir John See, premier of NSW (1901 - 1905). Sir John was better known for his enormous wealth and business acumen, and for the wonderful parties and social events hosted at Yester Grange.

The House has now been restored to its former glory and is fitted with crystal chandeliers, prized antique furniture and a multitude of unique architectural features. The decorating style is warm, light and neutral - specifically designed to compliment your chosen colour scheme. Each room has a romantic fireplace and central heating that ensures your guests will always remain snug and cozy on the coolest of winter days.

Ballroom Capacity

Up to 72 guests for a sit-down meal and up to 200 for a cocktail style reception.
